1 In this Act,

(b) “animal” includes alpacas, asses, bison, cats, cattle, cervids, dogs, ducks, geese, goats, horses, llamas, mules, poultry, ratites, sheep, swine, wild boars and any other animal prescribed in the regulations;

(c) “animal by-product” includes blood and any of its components, antlers, bones, bristles, feathers, flesh, hair, hides, hoofs, horns, offal, skins, wool and any other animal by-product prescribed in the regulations;

(d) “animal product” includes butter, cheese, cream, milk, eggs, meat, ova, semen and any other animal product prescribed in the regulations;

(e) “authorized person” means a person listed in the Schedule or prescribed in the regulations as an authorized person;

(k) “Department” means the Department of Agriculture and Food;

- (ii) a person who is designated in the regulations as an authorized person or who is within a class of persons that is designated in the regulations for the purposes of this subclause;

(e) in clause (k) by striking out “Food” and substituting “Rural Development”;

(f) by repealing clause (t) and substituting the following:

- (t) “owner” in respect of an animal, premises or any other thing includes a person who has custody or care and control of the animal, premises or other thing;

3 Section 2 is amended

(a) in subsection (1)

(i) by striking out “or” at the end of clause (a);

(ii) by repealing clause (b) and substituting the following:

- (b) any syndrome, or

(iii) by adding the following after clause (b):

- (c) the condition of carrying a disease-causing agent.

(b) in subsection (2) by adding “or” at the end of clause (a) and by repealing clause (b).

4 Section 3(b) is amended by striking out “through direct or indirect contact with the animal carrying the disease-causing agent, or with an animal product or animal by-product from the animal carrying the disease-causing agent,”.

- (i) “owner” includes a person who has custody or care and control;

3 Section 2 presently reads:

2(1) For the purposes of this Act, “disease” means

- (a) a pathological abnormality or a distinct group of symptoms or behaviours that are generally recognized by the scientific community as resulting or likely resulting from a single cause, or the interaction of more than one cause, or
- (b) any syndrome designated in the regulations as a disease.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), an inspector who is a registered veterinarian may consider an animal to be diseased if

- (a) in the opinion of the inspector, the animal exhibits a single abnormal symptom or behaviour or a group of abnormal symptoms or behaviours whose cause has not been identified or isolated,
- (b) the animal is carrying a disease-causing agent, or
- (c) the animal has residues that exceed the maximum residue limits set out under the Food and Drug Act (Canada).

4 Section 3(b) presently reads:

3 For the purposes of this Act, a reportable disease is a disease that

5 Section 12(2) is amended

- (a) in clause (n) by adding “or are suspected of being contaminated with” before “the disease-causing agent”;
- (b) in clause (p) by adding “of the animal or premises” after “owner”.

6 Section 23 is repealed and the following is substituted:

Service of surveillance zone order

23(1) The chief provincial veterinarian may serve notice of a surveillance zone order on an owner of premises or of an animal, animal product or animal by-product, or on an authorized person, within the surveillance zone.

- (b) in the opinion of the chief provincial veterinarian requires the implementation of control measures or eradication measures to minimize the risk of the disease spreading through direct or indirect contact with the animal carrying the disease-causing agent, or with an animal product or animal by-product from the animal carrying the disease-causing agent, because the disease
- (i) may cause products derived from a diseased animal to be unsafe or unfit for use or consumption,
 - (ii) may be a threat to animal health, public health or the health of other living organisms,
 - (iii) may be a threat to the economic interests of the animal industry, or
 - (iv) may be transmitted between animals and humans,

5 Section 12(2)(n) and (p) presently read:

(2) A quarantine order issued under subsection (1) may include any terms and conditions the chief provincial veterinarian considers necessary to minimize the risk of the reportable disease spreading and may

- (n) order the destruction of an animal in accordance with section 28 if the animal has or is suspected on reasonable and probable grounds of having the reportable disease or if the animal products or animal by-products from an animal are contaminated with the disease-causing agent for the reportable disease,
- (p) require the owner to inform the inspector of any animals that become sick or have died on the premises during the quarantine, and

6 Section 23 presently reads:

23(1) Notice of the surveillance zone order must be served by being delivered personally to each owner of premises or of an animal, animal product or animal by-product, and to each authorized person, within the surveillance zone.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), notice of the surveillance zone order under subsection (1) must be served by being personally delivered.

(3) If, in the opinion of an inspector, service cannot reasonably be effected in accordance with subsection (2), the inspector may post a copy of the surveillance zone order in a conspicuous place on the premises of each person to be served within the surveillance zone.

7 Section 25(3) is repealed and the following is substituted:

(3) If, in the opinion of an inspector, service cannot reasonably be effected in accordance with subsection (2), the inspector may post a copy of the amendment in a conspicuous place on the premises of each person who was notified of the original surveillance zone order.

8 Section 28 is amended

(a) in subsection (1) by striking out “or” at the end of clause (e), adding “or” at the end of clause (f) and adding the following after clause (f):

(g) if the animal has consumed or is suspected on reasonable and probable grounds of having consumed the carcass or other parts of a dead animal contrary to a provincial or federal enactment.

(b) by adding the following after subsection (3):

(4) If the owner fails to comply with an order issued pursuant to subsection (1)(g), the Minister may seize, destroy and dispose of the animal.

(5) The amount of expenses incurred in seizing, destroying and disposing of an animal under subsection (4) is a debt due to the Crown.

(2) If, in the opinion of an inspector, service cannot reasonably be effected in accordance with subsection (1), the inspector may post a copy of the surveillance zone order in a conspicuous place on the premises of each owner and authorized person within the surveillance zone.

7 Section 25(3) presently reads:

(3) If, in the opinion of an inspector, service cannot reasonably be effected in accordance with subsection (2), the inspector may post a copy of the amendment in a conspicuous place on the premises of each owner of premises or of an animal, animal product or animal by-product, and each authorized person, within the surveillance zone.

8 Section 28 presently reads:

28(1) The chief provincial veterinarian may order the owner of an animal to destroy or dispose of an animal within a specified period of time and may, subject to the regulations, choose the method of destruction and the method of disposal of the carcass

- (a) if the animal has or is suspected on reasonable and probable grounds of having a reportable disease,*
- (b) if the animal has come into contact with an animal that has or is suspected on reasonable and probable grounds of having a reportable disease,*
- (c) if the animal is on quarantined premises,*
- (d) if the animal has a reportable disease and the chief provincial veterinarian believes on reasonable and probable grounds that allowing the continued survival of the animal would be cruel or inhumane,*
- (e) if the animal is carrying or is suspected on reasonable and probable grounds of carrying a disease-causing agent for a reportable disease, or*

9 Section 37 is amended

- (a) in subsection (1) by adding “, for the purpose of administering or ensuring compliance with this Act or the regulations, and carrying out any work or doing any other thing that the inspector is authorized under this Act to carry out or do,” after “may”;
- (b) in subsection (2) by adding the following after clause (e):

 - (e.1) permit the inspector to use any computer hardware or software, including that of the vehicle, railway car, aircraft or watercraft, to obtain readings or other information about animals, animal products or animal by-products,

- (f) if an animal product or animal by-product from the animal is contaminated with or is suspected of being contaminated with a disease-causing agent for a reportable disease.*
- (2) If the chief provincial veterinarian orders the destruction and disposal of an animal, the chief provincial veterinarian must provide a copy of the order to the owner.*
- (3) The owner must comply with an order issued under subsection (1).*

9 Section 37(1) and (2) presently read:

37(1) An inspector and persons assisting an inspector may inspect any vehicle, railway car, aircraft or watercraft in or on which animals, animal products, animal by-products or contaminated material is transported.

(2) A person operating a vehicle, railway car, aircraft or watercraft described in subsection (1) must, when required by an inspector to do so,

- (a) bring the vehicle, railway car, aircraft or watercraft to a stop and keep it stopped until the end of any period of time that is reasonably necessary to enable the inspector to carry out the powers and duties of an inspector under this Act,*
- (b) permit the inspector to examine the vehicle, railway car, aircraft or watercraft and animals, animal products, animal by-products or contaminated material in or on the vehicle, railway car, aircraft or watercraft,*
