

Summer Law Student

Office of Parliamentary Counsel
Apply by February 20, 2026

Participate in Meaningful Work

The Office of Parliamentary Counsel provides comprehensive and non-partisan legal and legislative drafting services to the Speaker of the Legislative Assembly and other presiding officers, Members of the Legislative Assembly and the Clerk of the Legislative Assembly. Lawyers in the Office of Parliamentary Counsel also act as the Legislative Assembly Office's in-house legal team.

The Office of Parliamentary Counsel is seeking a law student from May to August 2026. Some of the work that the successful candidate may be asked to do includes the following:

- conducting research in a variety of legal areas, including parliamentary procedure and practice, constitutional law, contract law, leasing, employment law, information access and privacy law, and intellectual property law;
- assisting in the review and preparation of legal agreements, including contracts for services and commercial leases;
- assisting with legislative drafting and statutory interpretation.

Bring Your Excellence to the LAO

You are a highly organized, detail-oriented first- or second-year law student who thrives in a fast-paced environment. You are a collaborative team player who contributes positively to workplace culture and supports the LAO's commitment to a respectful environment.

The ideal candidate will have some knowledge of the legislative process and the operation of the Legislative Assembly. Good verbal and written communication skills are also assets. Ability to work in Microsoft Office is required.

Remuneration for this position is up to $34.34 per hour, with an additional 11.2% in lieu of holiday and statutory entitlements.

To apply for this position, please submit your resumé, cover letter and transcripts electronically, including most recent marks to hr@assembly.ab.ca. The deadline for applications is February 20, 2026. Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted for an interview.
