PART B: COMMENTS
Comments *	I'm not a lawyer so I will get right to the point. From what I see the tail is wagging the dog. Our country is now run entirely to appease the minorities at the cost of the majority. If the minority doesn't agree with the democratic decision they proceed to have a childlike fit and lash out with destruction and disobedience and instead of dealing with them we accommodate and coddle them. The rule of law needs to be reasserted and lobbying should never again get in the way of democracy and the rule of law.
