The amendments are good and are needed for the protection of the general public. My knowledge is that the warranty on workmanship/labour is usually 30 days. This needs to be extended as a 30 day window is not sufficient.

Thanks

GLEN.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF ALBERTA

STANDING COMMITTEE ON FAMILIES AND COMMUNITIES

September 28, 2016

DOUBLE DIAMOND AUTO FINDERS

Dear Stakeholder:

Re: Review of Bill 203 - Fair Trading (Motor Vehicle Repair Pricing Protection for Consumers) Amendment Act, 2016

Bill 203 - Fair Trading (Motor Vehicle Repair Pricing Protection for Consumers) Amendment Act, 2016 was referred by the Legislative Assembly of Alberta, after first reading, for review by the Standing Committee on Families and Communities. Bill 203 recommends changing the way in which auto service and repair businesses operate in the province in order to provide increased protection to consumers. The Bill proposes amendments to the Fair Trading Act that would require automotive service and repair businesses to provide written estimates, invoices and warranties, and to return removed or replaced parts.

The Committee is seeking input from stakeholders and would like to invite your participation. Please share this invitation with your colleagues and any other parties you believe may be interested in participating in this review. All written submissions should be forwarded to the Standing Committee on Families and Communities, c/o Committee Clerk, 3rd Floor, 9820 - 107 Street Edmonton Alberta T5K 1E7 or via email at FamiliesCommunitiesCommittee@assembly.ab.ca

The deadline for written submissions is Friday, October 28, 2016. Please note that submissions and the names of submitters may be made public, however, all third-party personal information will be removed. The Committee may decide to hold public meetings at a later date. If you wish to make an oral presentation to the Committee providing additional information, please clearly indicate this in your written submission.

The Standing Committee on Families and Communities is a multi-party committee consisting of 15 Members of the Legislative Assembly of Alberta. Committee meetings are open to the public, audio-streamed live and recorded by Alberta Hansard, and can be accessed online. The Committee's website, with a membership list, access to meeting transcripts, and the online audio feed, is www.assembly.ab.ca/committees/familiesandcommunities/index

Thank you for your consideration of the Committee's request. If you have any questions, please contact the Committee office at 780.427-1350.

Sincerely,
Standing Committee on Families and Communities
