Comments *	The act violates my personal privacy. The information disclosed by the act appears on my T4 form and can be used in identity theft, as it correlates my private information with my income tax reporting information. The actual values should be obfuscated with a function or my name removed. People are welcome to know my general compensation of my position but they shouldn't be privy to such details that enables criminal enterprise. We are citizens of Canada and we deserve that the privacy rules of the land be applied to all citizens fairly and safely.
