I am not a lobbyist. I am an Albertain whose world was turned upside down by the insanity of the NDP government. I live in a democracy and I will not be silenced by dictatorship NDP regulations. My medical doctors and medical team are saying the old PC government and the new NDP government cause chaos in the medical and business community. A shift to more renewable energy does not involve putting all the energy workers on EI while the government figures it out. That is immense cruelty for the people.

More children go hungry since the election of this government.
My neighbour's daughter is homeless and is calling her neighbour's to look for a place to stay.
She moves from home to home sleeping on people's couches because my neighbour can not pay the mortgage.

It's irrelevant what you decide for lobbying. We will vote again. Meanwhile we may or may not choose to be heard.

I live in a democracy.
