I understand the need for lobby groups and the want to influence the government to act or vote in a different way. That being said I must comment that I'm somewhat disappointed that as a community we need Lobbyists to butt in and coerce the politicians we voted for to make decisions that represent our values, not some fringe groups needs or wants. Sometimes I hear of a vote that went contrary to what I know my elected representative should not have agreed with based upon the mandate he was elected to do. I can only assume some Lobby group was able to meet my representative and sway them to vote to their favour.

I would like to see the tightest restrictions possible placed on Lobbyists and their ilk.
