

Legislature Grounds Scavenger Hunt #2

The grounds surrounding the Alberta Legislature Building are home to many interesting and unique monuments. Your task is to use the provided map to visit each of them and match them to the clues below. Once you have found the monument that fits, write the number of the monument from the map in the box next to the clue. Good luck!

- A. I don't see as many trains now as I did in 1915.
- B. I represent a popular resource of Alberta.
- C. 150 birds flock to my flame.
- D. My family and I mark the spot of a time capsule that will be opened in the year 2091.
- E. I represent something that Camrose, Jasper, Stettler and Lacombe all have in common.
- F. I am a little piece of Japan planted here in Edmonton.
- G. I represent the perseverance shown by Donald Alexander Smith.
- H. The anchor on my plaque was added to these grounds in 1985.
- I. I also celebrate the visit of the Duke and Duchess of York.
- J. I am the only monument that can tell you its longitude and latitude.
- K. I am a vision of the good quality of life to be enjoyed by the people of Edmonton and by their children.
- L. Think of me on April 28th.
- M. I signify an individual who was admired for showing great courage and integrity.
- N. Although I am 20 000 000 years old, I have only been Alberta's official stone for 34 years.
- O. You may need to cover your ears when standing near my platform.

- P. I know how many Canadian soldiers were killed of the 27,000 who served from 1950 to 1953.
- Q. I'm what you get when you combine a wild rose and a fleur-de-lys.
- R. I honour a former Lieutenant Governor who also has a school in Edmonton named after him.
- S. On my plaque you will find the saying: there is sorrow on the sea; it cannot be quiet.
- T. I have travelled a long way from my home in Victoria.
- U. I honour Albertans who laid down their lives for their friends and country.
- V. I am the only monument where you can find a soccer ball.
- W. I honour a group of female pioneers who helped to shape education, health care and social welfare in Alberta.
- X. I mark Alberta's golden birthday.
- Y. On December 31, 1966, I celebrated an important landmark in Canadian history.
- Z. When you look in my mirrors, you see more than just yourself.
- AA. The beaver is included on the Alberta crest to mark the influence that trading posts like me had in developing the province.
- BB. Have a seat and reflect on the splendour of nature and the legacy of a well-loved Lieutenant Governor.
- CC. I am a reminder that when you stand here, be silent. When you leave here, be not silent.
- 24 DD. Dedication Trees.

Scavenger
Hunt

MAP AND MONUMENTS Legislature Grounds

- |   |   |
|---|---|
| 1. Italian Monument                                   | 16. Albertans in the Canadian Naval Service       |
| 2. Ukrainian Centennial Pioneer Monument              | 17. Canadian Merchant Navy                        |
| 3. Aboriginal Veterans' Monument                      | 18. Rural Natural Gas Program                     |
| 4. Surveying the Future                               | 19. Centennial Flame                              |
| 5. Korean War Memorial                                | 20. Hokkaido Tree                                 |
| 6. Petrified Wood                                     | 21. 75th Anniversary of the Legislature           |
| 7. J. Percy Page Tree                                 | 22. Police and Peace Officers' Memorial           |
| 8. Royal Canadian Artillery Saluting Base             | 23. Holocaust Memorial                            |
| 9. Historic Civil Engineering Site: High Level Bridge | 24. Dedication Trees                              |
| 10. a) b) Fort Edmonton Markers                       | 25. Japanese Garden                               |
| 11. Lord Strathcona                                   | 26. Lois Hole Garden                              |
| 12. National Day of Mourning                          | 27. 50th Anniversary Marker                       |
| 13. Kwakiutl Totem Pole                               | 28. Francophone Monument                          |
| 14. John Rowand Memorial                              | 29. Periscopes                                    |
| 15. Capital City Recreation Park Marker               | 30. Catholic Sisters' Legacy Recognition Monument |

Legislature Grounds Scavenger Hunt #2

The grounds surrounding the Alberta Legislature Building are home to many interesting and unique monuments. Your task is to use the provided map to visit each of them and match them to the clues below. Once you have found the monument that fits, write the number of the monument from the map in the box next to the clue. Good luck!

- 9 A. I don't see as many trains now as I did in 1915.
- 18 B. I represent a popular resource of Alberta.
- 22 C. 150 birds flock to my flame.
- 2 D. My family and I mark the spot of a time capsule that will be opened in the year 2091.
- 25 E. I represent something that Camrose, Jasper, Stettler and Lacombe all have in common.
- 20 F. I am a little piece of Japan planted here in Edmonton.
- 11 G. I represent the perseverance shown by Donald Alexander Smith.
- 16 H. The anchor on my plaque was added to these grounds in 1985.
- 21 I. I also celebrate the visit of the Duke and Duchess of York.
- 4 J. I am the only monument that can tell you its longitude and latitude.
- 15 K. I am a vision of the good quality of life to be enjoyed by the people of Edmonton and by their children.
- 12 L. Think of me on April 28th.
- 14 M. I signify an individual who was admired for showing great courage and integrity.
- 6 N. Although I am 20 000 000 years old, I have only been Alberta's official stone for 34 years.
- 8 O. You may need to cover your ears when standing near my platform.

Scavenger
Hunt

Answer Key

- 5 P. I know how many Canadian soldiers were killed of the 27,000 who served from 1950 to 1953.
- 28 Q. I'm what you get when you combine a wild rose and a fleur-de-lys.
- 7 R. I honour a former Lieutenant Governor who also has a school in Edmonton named after him.
- 17 S. On my plaque you will find the saying: there is sorrow on the sea; it cannot be quiet.
- 13 T. I have travelled a long way from my home in Victoria.
- 3 U. I honour Albertans who laid down their lives for their friends and country.
- 1 V. I am the only monument where you can find a soccer ball.
- 30 W. I honour a group of female pioneers who helped to shape education, health care and social welfare in Alberta.
- 27 X. I mark Alberta's golden birthday.
- 19 Y. On December 31, 1966, I celebrated an important landmark in Canadian history.
- 29 Z. When you look in my mirrors, you see more than just yourself.
- 10 AA. The beaver is included on the Alberta crest to mark the influence that trading posts like me had in developing the province.
- 26 BB. Have a seat and reflect on the splendour of nature and the legacy of a well-loved Lieutenant Governor.
- 23 CC. I am a reminder that when you stand here, be silent. When you leave here, be not silent.
- 24 DD. Dedication Trees.

Scavenger Hunt

Answer Key