The Dream We Form By Being Together

Explore the theme of reconciliation through art with a visit to the latest exhibition in the Borealis Gallery. The Dream We Form By Being Together is an interactive exhibit grounded in the principles of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission and emerges from the awareness that art will play a significant role in the process of reconciliation.

From artworks that invite engagement to a campfire and sharing circle, The Dream We Form By Being Together seeks to rebalance colonial narratives within the much larger story of the place we call Canada.

The exhibition is a free, nonticketed event in the Borealis Gallery until October 1, 2017. Visit assembly.ab.ca/visitorcentre/borealis for more details.

Discover Thursday Evenings at the Alberta Legislature

There's a new and exciting series of evening events kicking off on October 5 at the Alberta Legislature.

Visitors can look forward to an array of guest speakers, film screenings, free concerts and more. Thursdays TBD – To Be Discovered will take place in various locations across the site, including inside the Legislature Building, in the Legislative Assembly Visitor Centre and outside on the grounds.

Beginning in October, you'll want to make the Legislature your go-to destination on a Thursday night!

Details and event listings available soon at assembly.ab.ca/visitorcentre/events.

Coming Soon to the Borealis Gallery

From October 13, 2017, to January 2, 2018, check out the Legion Halls exhibit in the Borealis Gallery.

Legion Halls is a travelling exhibition produced by the Canadian War Museum and made possible in part by a generous donation from the Friends of the Canadian War Museum.
